Murderer who fled country jailed for life

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A NIGERIAN man who took part in the murder of a teenager 14 years ago at a So Solid Crew gig was jailed for life on Friday.

Adebayo Ekun (pictured far right) fled the country back in 2001 following the beating and stabbing to death of Marcus Hall (right), who was just 18.

Ekun, who was 25 at the time and living in South London, made his way back to his native Nigeria where he remained over the years, even getting married and having two children.

Earlier this year, police in Nigeria swooped on an address and found Ekun present, who was arrested and brought back to the UK and charged with the murder.

On Friday he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to at least 10 years.

He had been part of a gang that chased Marcus and his friends through Luton and attacked him as he lay helpless on the ground.

The incident happened at Atmosphere nightclub on March 21, 2001.

Marcus' group arrived after midnight and were unable to get in and were still outside at 2am when crowds began to leave. Ekun had been at a So Solid Crew gig held at the club that night with friends.

After the event, it wasn't long before violence flared and Marcus and his friends found themselves caught up in a street fight with another group of men.

He and his group were forced to flee and were chased from Chapel Street along Flowers Way and into Park Street West. Unable to keep up with his friends, Marcus collapsed to the ground and was then set upon by his pursuers.

On Friday Judge Michael Kay QC, hearing the case, was told that Ekun had been one of the group chasing Marcus.

He died shortly afterwards from the stab wounds and the head injuries he had suffered, which included a fractured skull.

Five people were eventually convicted of the murder of Marcus at the Old Bailey, but Ekun remained at large.

A statement from Marcus' mother Icelyn Wilson was read out in court in which she said the loss had been 'soul destroying'.

She said: "The death of Marcus will never leave me or my family - 14 years down the line and it still hurts as if it had happened yesterday and I will never get over it."

"I would like Adebayo Ekun to know the impact his and the others' actions in killing my son has had on my family."

Detective Sergeant Mark Devine added: "If you commit, or are involved in, serious crime such as this, then there is literally no place to hide. We are committed to catching those responsible no matter how long it takes."

"This was a vicious attack that cost a young man his life."

Bricking it! Jules' Lego tribute to Kenilworth Road

IF the Hatters' £10m land purchase leads to a new stadium, this miniature replica could be a lasting tribute to the iconic Kenilworth Road ground.

Jules Richards, 42, of Poynters Road, Luton, built his own version of Luton Town FC's home for the last 110 years - out of Lego.

Mr Richards said: "I've previously built Cardiff's ground, being a Cardiff City fan, and a few others, but having a few mates who are Hatters fans I was asked to give it a go." The build has received a huge response on Twitter and fan message boards, with one person even offering to buy it.

Mr Richards added: "Even the club's official Twitter account has got hold of it and shared it."

Asked whether he has plans to make any more, Mr Richards said: "I've had requests from friends to make Swindon Town and Burnley's grounds but I don't think that'll happen for a while."

Pet owners living in fear as number of animals taken almost tops 1,000

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

FEWER than ten people have been arrested or charged despite more than 800 animals being stolen in the county over the last three years, LoS can reveal.

Between 2012-2015, thieves made off with 297 fish, 111 partridges, 122 chickens and 74 dogs. A further 19 rabbits, 13 cats and four birds were also pinched, among others.

In total, 880 animals were stolen during 139 separate incidents but only three people have been charged.

The data comes from a Freedom of Information request sent to Bedfordshire Police. The force said it has a 'dedicated' wildlife officer tackling the issue.

A number of pet owners looking for lost animals are now concerned they have fallen victim to thieves.

Corrinne Rockall, from Southill, moved to the county two months but fears her Bengal cat named Sybil may have been stolen. She has not been seen since July 4.

She said: "She had been going out and coming back but on this particular day I was working from home so the door was open longer.

"She never came back so I do not know if she has been hurt, is being fed by someone or if she has been taken."

Cem Skylark, from Dunstable, said he also feared his cockatoo called Magic, which went missing on June 25, could also have been taken.

Nina Cole, a professional pet sitter from Eaton Bray, said pet owners must be 'more vigilant'.

She said: "What makes my blood boil is that some people leave their dogs outside at the supermarket but we want to discourage this because it only takes a few seconds to steal a dog."

A police spokeswoman said the wildlife officer was had a 'series of priorities' set for 2014-16.

She added: "The objectives are aimed at prevention, gathering intelligence about offending and enforcement success around rural crime, including animal theft."

STAY PUT: Andrew Selous thinks Britain should refuse refugees

Selous wants refugees to stay near war-torn Syria

ANDREW Selous MP has said he wants to see Syrian refugees remain as close to their country of origin as possible.

His remarks come after a number of Tory MPs called for more refugees to be allowed into the UK, despite David Cameron reaffirming his position that accepting more people was 'not the simple answer to the situation' and no more refugees should be taken in.

Mr Cameron later changed his position, following widespread public outcry.

Mr Selous, Conservative MP for South West Bedfordshire, said: "I want to see peace return to areas in the Middle East and refugees to remain as close to Syria as possible so we can see them return easily."

Dunstable activist Dan Heley, who has been working closely with CalAid, which helps refugees in Calais, told Luton on Sunday: "It's irresponsible given the humanitarian crisis and it emulates what has mostly been his party's position throughout."

newsbriefs

TOP COP DID SEND APOLOGY NOTE

LAST week justice groups in Luton slammed police and crime commissioner Olly Martins for not attending a community meeting and failing to let them know.

LoS has since discovered Mr Martins did send a letter of apology for his absence as he had already committed to another function that night.

MUM ARRESTED AT AIRPORT

A 33 YEAR-old woman was arrested at Luton Airport on Thursday on suspicion of child abduction.

Zahera Tariq from East London was arrested after she was returned from Istanbul with her four children.

A public appeal was made after concerns were raised she was intending to travel to Syria.

PUBLIC RALLIES TO SAVE MAN

RESIDENTS helped release a man trapped under a car in Luton on Wednesday.

Emergency services were called to reports of a man trapped beneath a car in Thrales Close at about 12.30pm.

He was assessed at the scene by paramedics but refused medical treatment and was not taken to hospital.

WORLD RECORD FOR DRINKING

A PUB in Dunstable is attempting to break the record for the most people drinking the same beer at the same time.

Top takeaway curries favour with judges

SUCCESS was the dish of the day for a curry takeaway named the best in the region this week.

Masterchef, in Hart Lane, came away with the regional honours at the annual English Curry Awards.

Suruk Miah, owner and chef at the takeaway, said he was 'proud' of his team following their second such accolade in three years.

He said: "I'm really proud of my team and I would like to thank all our customers because they have supported us."

"The secret behind our success is working hard and always trying to create a new curry."

"We always change our menu and try something different."

Mr Miah said he now had his sights on winning the top gong at next year's awards.

Chef warns that curry houses facing 'decline'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

TOUGHER immigration laws are contributing to a decline in the town's curry houses, a businessman has warned.

Oli Khan, who lives in Luton but runs two restaurants in Stevenage and is a regional director for the Bangladeshi Caterers Association, said the town had gone from having 60 curry houses to 21 in the space of three years.

Nationally, he said many curry houses were closing every week because there are not enough skilled chefs locally.

He said: "The policies around non-EU migrants are affecting the curry houses."

The government puts a cap on skilled migrants coming from outside the EU, and they must earn at least £29,570 - £5k more than the average salary for such a job.

He added: "Chefs are the bedrock of the curry house and a lot of curry houses cannot produce them over here."

"For example, to run a 50 to 70-seater curry house you need eight people this is split between four people in the kitchen and four at front of house."

"So if you pay £29k to a chef from overseas and you need two skilled chefs, they cannot afford it."

"Curry houses come under the small business category and it's hard for them to pay that much."

Mr Khan also said a lot of curry houses brought in foreign chefs because the 'new Asian generation does not want to be in the industry'. He said previous attempts to train workers from other nationalities had not worked very well.

He added: "We have 12,500 curry houses in the UK but a lot are closing every week so if the government does not save this industry then the British economy will be affected."

Refugee family's mission to Calais

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE daughter of two Bosnian refugees will spend her 23rd birthday delivering supplies to Calais to return the kindness her family was showed on arrival.

Victoria Dautovic, of Cheviot Road, Luton, will be travelling down with her parents and brother, Sead, on September 17 to give something back, after her family found refuge from the Bosnian War when they arrived in Luton in 1992.

Ms Dautovic said: "Our survival is all thanks to the kind and giving spirit of the amazing people of Luton."

"This is how I wanted to spend my birthday, as without the help my family received we wouldn't be here today."

Her mother Kelima and her older sister Ena arrived on September 7, 1992 and Victoria was born at Luton and Dunstable Hospital 10 days later.

Her father, Emver, arrived in Luton six months later, after time in the notorious Omarska detention camp.

Her mother's journey took her from her hometown of Kozarac to England via a concentration camp and a refugee camp, escaping the Prijedor massacre. It was there that an aid worker from Luton took around 20 asylum seekers back home.

The story of the Dautovic's arrival originally appeared in Bedfordshire on Sunday in September 1993.

Miss Dautovic added: "We have quite a lot of supplies to drop off already but we are always looking for more."

"I'm not asking for money, mainly winter clothes such as scarves, gloves, hats, socks, old coats and shoes and sanitary items for the women."

Donation drop off points are located at the Luton Culture Trust Centres.

Any enquiries should be directed to Victoria on 07757 704033.

Projects could help eliminate nuisance bikers

MORE funding for youth projects could help tackle the problem of nuisance bikers in Dunstable and Houghton Regis, a tutoring firm has said.

In 2010 Karl Weaver, from KWS Educational Services in Luton, ran a project for young people which taught them mechanical skills.

But it stopped after a year because funding ran out and Mr Weaver feels that could be contributing to the recent rise in nuisance bikers.

He said: "It was really positive because it stopped anti-social behaviour in the area and the young people were policing the area. They stopped the other young people from riding around because they were enjoying the project."

He added: "It started off as a 12-week program but it ended up running for a year."

"The funding stopped but I understand there are real issues there now. We have tried to get funding but there's nothing out there."

Wasteland-turned-garden scoops prestigious prize

A COMMUNITY initiative has been given a boost to the tune of £1,000.

Incredible Edible, a project led by Sahira Ward, has changed a wasteland area into a garden for growing fruit and vegetables.

The already award-winning space has now been given £1,000 worth of gardening vouchers for winning the Sustainability Street prize.

The project, based in Katherine Road, Dunstable, was set up not only to revitalise the area, but to give people who live nearby a garden of their own.

Mrs Ward said: "We found a community that's actually keen to be a community and the garden has given us a focus and a reason to do it."

Watchdog brands home inadequate

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

INSPECTORS have branded a care service as 'inadequate' after raising concerns about its staff recruitment and management style.

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) said the way Luke's Place, in Putteridge Park, recruited staff was 'not safe' as background checks were not completed on six employees before they started work. It also found that assessments were not done on fire hazards or the risk of Legionnaire's disease.

The residential home, which looks after people with learning and physical disabilities or mental health conditions, was visited on June 11 as part of a routine inspection.

According to the CQC's report, manager Susan Hardman, did not 'demonstrate strong visible leadership or give consistent direction' to her staff or have 'effective systems in place to assess the quality of the service'.

Although staff were said to be 'caring', inspectors said 'people were not always supported to maintain good health'.

The CQC said it would be keeping the care home under review until another inspection was done in six months' time. The service is expected to have made 'significant improvements' by then.

Luton on Sunday contacted Luke's Place but the care home declined to comment.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

New home for Luton Town

BUILDING a new football stadium near junction 10a of the M1, seems like a good idea.

But, the M1 is a very busy road. Everyday on the news, there's an accident, that causes long delays for motorists.

What with Luton airport expanding. You can't get blood out of a motorway.

Safety report needs work

I SEE a local community is still pursuing its case against Luton Borough Council for the tragic death of a little girl in a collision with a bus in Bury Park.

Not satisfied with the coroner's finding that nobody was to blame they have now engaged the services of an expert to look into the matter. So far this expert's findings seem limited to declaring that crossing points need better control, the road isn't wide enough and that the presence of concrete bollards on the pavement were a contributory factor.

Maybe that's a good first step - but it surely didn't take an 'expert' to come up with that? In any case what is needed is some sensible solutions to the problem.

So should there be more control of the crossing points? Perhaps, but that wouldn't have saved the life of this little girl because

What's come over our PCC?

IMMEDIATELY after police and crime commissioner Olly Martins was elected, hardly a day went by without a report and/or a photo appearing showing him cosying up to the Asian community.

Within a few days of his appointment he even went to Bury Park to open a food bank of all things. But now, seemingly, wild horses can't drag him there.

He won't even go there when specifically invited.

Last week a meeting was organised by people concerned to express their frustration at the lack of progress over the Leon Briggs, Faruk Ali, Mayah Shazad, and Istiak Yusuf affairs.

Naturally enough they invited Mr Martins because, unlike food-banks, these were relevant police matters. He didn't even send along a representative. You'd have thought he could have sent his deputy - oh no, he sacked her - well his assistant then, 'cos we haven't heard of him since his appointment - what does

Mr Bullock do for his £55,000 salary?

So what is Mr Martins afraid of?

At one time his Labour Party cronies could have been relied upon to rise to his defence but they've been very quiet lately and have even given his boyfriend the sack.

And now, it seems, he has upset his Bury Park friends by snubbing their invitation.

How things have changed. Can you hear the clock ticking, Mr Martins? Name and address supplied Luton is massively overcrowded and to keep encouraging more and more people to live here without first developing the infrastructure is little short of criminal lunacy.

Building more houses will only make the problem worse because it will attract even more people. LBC must start to accept that we don't have a shortage of accommodation but instead we have just far too many people.

Radical solutions are needed. For starters, why not encourage homeless families to move away by handing them vouchers - for say £10,000 - which they could cash only after being able to demonstrate they had subsequently lived elsewhere in the UK (minimum 50 miles from Luton) for at least five years? £10,000 might seem generous but it's a lot less than the cost of building a new home. And what's more it would reduce the strain on our infrastructure, including our overcrowded busy streets.

Ron Turvey
Stanmore Crescent

MIGRANTS all over the world are demanding a better life, and they don't care how they go about it.

HIGH STAKES: Helen Wilson, aka A.A. Abbott, has written her third crime thriller after being inspired by Luton author Arthur Hailey, whose books sold 170m copies and were translated into 38 languages

Helen swaps spreadsheets for a new chapter

EACH year, nearly 270,000 people are listed as missing, some simply vanishing without a trace. In her latest crime thriller, Luton writer Helen Wilson, who writes under the penname of A.A. Abbott, tells the story behind one statistic after blonde croupier, Kat, vanishes in mysterious circumstances.

The 54-year-old author spent 30 years of her working life as an accountant before deciding the time was right to indulge her passion for writing. She said: "I was excellent at English at school, and loved writing, but not being well off meant I went for a job I knew I could earn money in. But once my son grew up I had more time and decided the time was right for me."

The Bride's Trail, Wilson's third novel, weaves an intricate yarn about stolen identities, fraud and features plenty of sub-plots besides.

As well as being a Luton woman herself, Wilson found inspiration in local author Arthur Hailey. "His books are very readable and well researched. They are fast paced, blockbuster style books - but extremely involving."

"That's what I aspire to as a writer."

Published by Perfect City Press, The Bride's Trail is priced at £7.99 in paperback as an opening offer (normally £9.99) from bookshops or through Amazon.co.uk

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerve often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 4,026 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

Special LUTON ON SUNDAY Reader Offer

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg."

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Your invitation for a comprehensive consultation and examination to pinpoint the cause of your low back pain and sciatica...

Luton on Sunday has teamed up with the spine therapy specialists at Atlas Wellness Centre, to help readers find relief from their persistent back and sciatic pain.

All you have to do to receive a thorough diagnostic examination with the most advanced technology in the world and a comprehensive easy to understand report on your state of health is call 01234 340317.

THE EAST MIDLANDS ANTIQUES ROADSHOW arrives in Luton and offers local people the unique opportunity to come along and have a free valuation of any item and possibly be made a firm spot cash offer without any obligation.

Mr Franks recalls an instance, the last time East Midlands Antiques were in the area, when a couple came along with a selection of old broken and incomplete rings, a few items of unusual jewellery and an old broke, gentleman's wristwatch, expecting only a small amount and they were totally amazed to receive over £2,000. Another astonishing story was when a crystal vessel, estimated at just £100-£200 was sold for £220,000.

So why not take this chance to search through your attic, drawers and cupboards, to see if you could also be sitting on a fortune. Don't be afraid or embarrassed. You will find East Midlands Antiques' representatives most helpful, courteous and friendly. There is no obligation to sell, so if you just require a free valuation, no problem.

All transactions are strictly cash.

So pop along and see us at The Red Lion Hotel. Mr Franks said the reasons for visiting the area are numerous. Many valuable articles were found in the last visit to the area. For instance, on one occasion this year, a Rolex, valued at £2,000-£3,000 fetched a staggering £48,000. The hotel is well known to local residents and is well placed with plenty of car parking available. So on the Wednesday 9th September you have the chance to visit the hotel and see our accredited buyers and valuers absolutely free. Mr Franks has over 20 years experience of professional valuations and now his expertise is available at no cost to you, specialising in oil paintings, water-colours and many other articles. Medals, decorations and orders are one of the most collectable items and East Midlands Antiques has a waiting list of collectors and customers willing to pay for these articles.

Firing females up

BY JENNA HUTBER
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

IMAGINE your home is on fire and you're trapped on the first floor.

Sirens wail, the flames are so close you can hear them crackle and a fire officer fights their way through the smoke and guides you to safety. When they take their helmet off who do you see?

You'd be forgiven for picturing a macho fireman - your Fireman Sam duvet cover still stashed in the cupboard might go a long way to explaining why a mere four per cent of firefighters nationwide are female.

Just 18 out of the 396 firefighters currently serving in Bedfordshire Fire and Rescue Service are women, but an appeal has been launched for female firefighters to buck the trend and join the team.

Firefighter Marion Carlie, 46, serves confidently beside her male colleagues in facing up to whatever dramas and incidents are thrown her way.

But one of her standout memories is not exactly a towering inferno moment - it was a call-out to rescue a cow stuck in a river.

"It was very frightened, and it took a very long time to get it out of the water," Marion says.

ON CALL: Marion Carlie joined the fire service five years ago after spotting a promotional poster at Potton fire station

"One of the best things about the job is the training opportunities, the life skills you learn. I loved the blue-light training. It's brilliant. I almost squealed with excitement the first time I drove a fire engine to a call out."

"We all receive basic animal rescue training, we all know basic trauma care. That was something I didn't expect - education has helped prevent a lot of fires now and we more often get called out to assist road accidents."

Sprinting into life-threatening situations is in the job description; how do firefighters keep their heads when literally under fire?

"There's a lot of camaraderie on the team and you never feel like you're dealing with it on your own. I'm the only female on the team but I've never felt like I'm on the back foot."

"I always feel calm going on scene actually, it never really sinks in until it's over with. I find it exciting that you never know what to expect from a call out."

'On-call' firefighters are only called out at agreed times that are suitable for the individual.

Did you know?

There are more bacteria on your laptop keyboard, iPad or smart phone than on your toilet seat.

Do you wash your hands after using the toilet? 60% of men and 40% of women admit that they don't. The result is that they carry away 200 million bacteria per square inch on their hands and that bacteria will live in the air and on door handles, switches and surfaces that they touch for up to 8 months.

There are families suffering from infections for up to 30 weeks of every year as bacteria and viruses get passed from one family member to another.

As our lives get busier we cut corners and as a result we allow harmful germs to spread, causing increased illness and allergic reactions.

Sanondaf is a specialist disinfection company, originally developed to help hospitals deal with MRSA, Norovirus and other germs. It is now available to homes (and businesses) in the Bedfordshire area providing a quick, cost effective way to kill 99.99 % of all bacteria, viruses, mould and fungi on every surface and in the air. Using unique dry-fog spraying equipment it not only deals with germs but also removes odours. Good news for those with allergies as it drives out dust mites and kills mould spores as well. Sanondaf can really make your house a safer place - unfortunately it can't wash your hands for you!

Youths behind bars for attack at court

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

TEENAGE gang members have been jailed for a total of 32 years and eight months after attacking rivals in Luton town centre.

They discovered the other gang members were going to court to support a pal and realised they would have to be unarmed to pass through security. Members of the 'Lewsey Trap' attacked their bitter rivals from the 'Purley Crew' when they left Luton Magistrates' Court on December 2 last year. In the ambush a teenage boy from the Purley Crew was stabbed four times.

On Tuesday Derrick Clarke, 19, of Fenson Drive, Luton, was jailed for 11 years. He had been found guilty of conspiracy to cause grievous bodily harm with intent. He admitted wounding with intent, violent disorder and possessing a weapon. Mohammed Lahdiri, 18, of Leyton, East London, was jailed for six years and eight months having pleaded guilty to wounding with intent, violent disorder and possessing a weapon.

Ciaran Lambert, 17, of Roman View, Flitwick, who had admitted wounding with intent, violent disorder and possessing a weapon, was sentenced to nine years youth custody and 17-year-old Javante Fraser of Williton Road, Luton, who admitted wounding with intent, violent disorder and possessing a weapon, was sentenced to six years.

Sejon King, 18, of Williton Road, Luton, who was found guilty of conspiracy to cause grievous bodily harm with intent, will be sentenced at a later date.

Right up your street

Soldier lent his name to town's big car maker

THIS week Howard Chandler tells us more about the links between Luton and Vauxhall.

The name Vauxhall comes from the London home of Faulkes de Breaute. Faulkes Hall became Foxhall and then Vauxhall.

His coat of arms featured a griffin, adopted as the badge for Vauxhall Motors.

De Breaute was given the Manor of Luton by King John in the 13th century, so when Vauxhall Ironworks Co. Ltd arrived in Luton in 1905 they could be said to be returning home.

One of the men responsible for the move was Percy Kidner and in 1989 a close was named for him in the newly developed Bushmead area.

Kidner was managing director of Vauxhall from 1903 and was instrumental in the growth of the company for a quarter of a century. A keen competition driver, in 1908 he drove a 20hp Vauxhall 2,000 miles without an involuntary stop, the first time a car managed this feat.

On leaving Vauxhall he started a successful car sales and service organisation in Oxford along with Works manager A J Hancock. More of Hancock next week.

REVIEW: The petition was launched soon after Tommy was arrested, just weeks after being released from prison

3,000 call for review into treatment of ex-EDL leader

A PETITION calling for a judicial review into the treatment of ex-EDL leader Tommy Robinson has been signed by almost 3,000 people.

It has been launched online by a supporter who said they were 'extremely distressed' by the way Robinson has been treated by the authorities.

Robinson, whose real name is Stephen Lennon, was recently arrested again - weeks after being released from prison. A post on Facebook by Helen Gower, his assistant, said his arrest was related to a fight he was involved in during his time in Peterborough prison.

The petition, on change.org, states: 'During his times in prison, Tommy has been attacked on numerous occasions. He has received an enormous amount of death threats, including threats to his wife and children - which the police have not done anything about.'

In January last year Robinson was given an 18-month sentence for mortgage fraud. However, he was released and then recalled last October.

Data probe closed

AN investigation into 'personal and sensitive' patient data incorrectly disclosed by a hospital has concluded that no further action needs to be taken.

Luton and Dunstable Hospital said it has apologised to those affected after the breaches, which happened in December last year, resulted in the data being 'disclosed in error'.

A spokeswoman for the L&D declined to give further details about the incident but said that the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) had been informed at the time. Information about the data breach was released in the hospital's 2014/15 report.

In September 2013 the L&D had another incident in which patient records held at an off site library were not correctly filed by a third party company which handles its data.

A hospital spokeswoman said: "The hospital can confirm that the investigations into the three 'disclosed in error' data breaches reported in the trust's annual report for 2014/15 have been concluded and closed. Apologies were made to the patients involved and no further action was necessary."

The spokeswoman also said the probe into the data breach had been a 'full information governance investigation by the trust'.

She added: "The ICO was satisfied by the trust's findings and the investigation has now been closed by both the Luton and Dunstable University Hospital and the ICO."

Start your day in a great way

Food writer Monaz Dumasia is keen to help families get a healthy start in the morning

With busy lives, many parents struggle to find the time for a proper breakfast. Adele Jennings, 39, who has two children and a 70-mile commute to work, is one such mum... Art Editor Adele's lack of time meant she and her husband Mark, 42, often skipped breakfast. Here she tells how she took food writer Monaz's advice on board for a better start to the day...

Adele Says: 'When food writer Monaz reviewed our routine I suddenly realised how I wasn't doing myself any favours skipping breakfast.'

'Our busy morning rushing around before work and school meant I often just had a flask of tea in the car on the way to work rather than a proper meal.'

'I drive 70 miles to work and rarely had time to eat. If I couldn't grab a bit of toast, sometimes I wouldn't eat at all and I'd feel starving later on.'

'Although my husband and I always ensure the children eat together, we weren't exactly setting the best example. I'd rarely have time to eat at all in the mornings and Mark's breakfast was just a big mug of tea!'

Morning variety

'Monaz made me realise breakfast didn't have to be so rushed and stressful. She also made me realise its importance as a good start to the day.'

'She advised me to plan ahead with a recipe for a cereal-based smoothie I could make the night before.'

'I blended a handful of Kellogg's All Bran with natural yoghurt, banana, berries and some milk and kept it in the fridge for the next day.'

'Next morning, instead of rushing out on an empty stomach, I was able to quickly drink my smoothie which filled me up immediately – and tasted amazing!'

'My children Jacob, four, and Amber, 11, even had a taste and loved it too and although they normally have Kellogg's Rice Krispies – they want one every now and then.'

'Monaz really made me realise that even though I was putting the children first and ensuring they had breakfast, I wasn't helping myself by going to work on an empty stomach.'

MORNING RUSH

Jacob, Adele, Amber and Mark

Monaz says...

'Well done, Adele! I'm so glad the cereal-based smoothie trick helped her to enjoy a proper breakfast. It's a bonus that the kids loved it too.'

We're on a roll

THE days of cutting and pasting the elements of a page together might be long since gone, but at Westferry Printers, the distinctive smell of fresh newsprint still hangs in the air.

Based in Kimpton Road in Luton, Westferry has four gearless presses which print hundreds of thousands of copies of Luton on Sunday and its sister titles Bedfordshire on Sunday, the Northampton Herald and Post, and Milton Keynes News, as well as national red tops like the Daily Express and Daily Star.

From morning until night the 150,000 sqft, £60 million shed is thrumming with life – albeit it mostly mechanical these days – as millions of copies of newspapers, magazines and leaflets, national and local, fly off the production line.

The journey from idea to reality begins with the daily delivery of gigantic reels of paper each weighing in at around 1.25 tonnes. The reels are then stacked by fork-lift style robots, one on top of the other, until they are taken individually to be prepared for a print run.

Once the reels are primed and ready on the stands for printing, they are moved, again by robots as the process is almost entirely automated, so the printed word can be transferred from the plates onto the paper by a number of separate machines.

At their fastest, these machines can go through 14.5 m of paper in a single second.

Mick Crawley, operations manager at Westferry, tells me the job of moving the reels was done by several men once upon a time, but although the process has become twice as fast, the introduction of improved machinery has come at a heavy price for workers.

At present there are 83 permanent members of staff, as well as numerous sub-contractors.

'We used to push the reel into the reel stand by ourselves and we only need half the amount of people to run the machines as we did before,' he says.

'The problem is people don't want to pay money for newspapers anymore, they want everything for free. It all relies on advertising and to keep the costs down you have to cut the labour.'

Back on the floor the next step is to make up the plates. For every page there are four plates – one in each of the four colour groups; cyan, magenta, yellow and black. Each plate has a code on its side denoting the type of colour it is and what page in the paper appears on it.

Mick says: 'When you click send it goes straight to the machines and the PDF of the page is separated into CMYK.'

'Once we've started printing, a copy goes down a shoot to be checked every two minutes to make sure everything looks like it should and all the colours are right.'

'From when Luton on Sunday comes off the stone (when every page has been sent) to coming off the press it takes around 35 minutes.'

Once your favourite Sunday newspaper has rolled off the

Oh no she isn't! Oh yes she is! Priscilla to star in Panto

THEATRE

ALADDIN

Milton Keynes Theatre
December 4- January 10

THE former wife of Elvis and world-renowned actress Priscilla Presley will be making dreams come true for Dallas fans and starring as Genie of the Lamp in Milton Keynes Theatre's Christmas pantomime, Aladdin, this year.

The 70-year-old actress, who is best known for co-starring with Leslie Nielsen in the Naked Gun film series and for her role as Jenna Wade in Dallas, said pantomime is one of the 'most fulfilling experiences of my life.'

She said: "My grandchildren absolutely love seeing me on stage and I can't wait to get in front of a live audience again. It's such a wonderful honour to be spending Christmas here and being part of this very special festive tradition."

The Christmas period is an important one for Priscilla who was proposed to by Elvis shortly before Christmas in 1966 and married the rock star at the now defunct Aladdin Hotel in Las Vegas in 1967.

Priscilla met the king of rock n' roll when she was a schoolgirl in Germany where her US Air Force officer father was stationed. Although they divorced in 1973, they remained very close until his death in 1977.

Two years later she became co-executor of the Presley estate which includes the famous Graceland mansion owned by daughter Lisa-Marie Presley, and she still sits on the board of the company.

"I'm set to come over to England in the middle of November - I love Christmas in England, the stores go all out with their decorations, they really embrace it."

"Once we get going though we will be performing twice daily, the adrenaline and nervous energy get quiet intense on the opening night but I love the process."

Joining Priscilla in the all-star MK Theatre line-up is comedian Gary Wilmot in Old Peking as the Chinese Laundry owner, Widow Twankey.

Dance world legend Wayne Sleep OBE brings his own choreographic Genie-us to the show as the Genie of the Ring.

His West End theatre performances have included Mr Mistofeles in Cats and the Child Catcher in Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. MK panto favourite Kev Orkian, who last starred there as 'The Henchman' in Snow White in 2013, will star as Aladdin's wayward brother, Wishee-Washee.

Meanwhile, singer/songwriter ex A1 boyband member and BRIT award winner Ben Adams will be taking the lead role as Aladdin himself.

The former Big Brother contestant is no stranger to Panto fans in Milton Keynes after starring at Prince Charming in Cinderella in 2009/10. Aladdin is familiar ground for the singer who played the part in Woking last Christmas.

Aladdin audiences can bank on sensational songs played by a live band, dazzling dance routines, side-splitting slapstick comedy and bags of audience participation.

Tickets start at £13.90 and can be reserved at atgtickets.com

Ageing cast in Wilde's classic 'make it better'

COMEDY

IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Milton Keynes Theatre
September 15 to 19, 7.30pm

PLAYING the part of someone less than half your age is always going to be noticed by an audience - but when that part is in one of the most highly-regarded plays ever written, you're never going to get off lightly.

Christine Kavanagh, 58, is to take to the stage at Milton Keynes Theatre later this month in the role of Cecily Cardew, the 18-year-old ward of John/Jack Worthing (or is it Ernest?) in a new adaptation of the Importance of Being Earnest.

The twist on this particular rendition is that it is done in the style of an amateur group of ageing thespians, the Bunbury Players, performing the Oscar Wilde classic.

However Christine thinks this trivial play has been taken a little too seriously by some people. She says: "It has been well received apart from a few snuffy nationals, and our age actually attracts some to the play."

"I played Gwendolen when I was younger and I don't think I was terribly good. When you're young you think you have to do a classic in a certain way. This is one of my favourites and I don't revere it, I play it to enjoy it. We're not messing with it, we're just old!"

Tickets start at £10 and are available by calling 0844 871 7652 or online at: atgtickets.com/miltonkeynes

Storming the stage with funny faces and daft real life stories

COMEDY

BARNSTORMERS

Grove Theatre
September 17, 8pm

COMEDIAN Kevin Precious brings another round of laughs at his monthly slot at the Grove.

For the past six years, the Hull-born funny man has been entertaining crowds with his now popular 'Barnstormer nights'.

And this month promises to be no different with his line-up of established comedy acts.

He said: "People really like it. We have a regular clientele but we are also up for new people coming along."

"I assume people like it because they keep coming back!"

So who is going to be performing at the next show?

Andy White:
A Brummie who is said to have 'escaped from a call centre to become a stand up comic'.

His act includes silly voices, funny faces, observational humour, topical humour and his mixed race background.

Andy has played to a wide variety of audiences such adults and children, both at home and abroad, comedy clubs, theatres, universities, radio and TV.

Anthony King:
Anthony describes himself as 'an outwardly normal looking bloke who turned to comedy after he was disowned by the Catholic Church for giving a confession in too much detail'.

Comedy is what he turned to and he has performed in all the major comedy clubs across the UK and beyond, including performances in the Netherlands, Dubai, Majorca, Abu Dhabi and Al Ain.

His humour is a combination of his own true-life experiences mixed in with a healthy dose of untruths.

Stefano Paolini:
Since winning the runner-up spot in Channel 4's So You Think You're Funny Award 2001 and in BBC's New Comedy Award 2002, Stefano has had a constant stream of TV and radio work, which he manages to juggle with gigging four to five nights a week.

He is currently recording Bromwell High - a new animation series for Channel 4 where he voices more than 20 different characters.

Advance tickets cost £12.50 but you can pay £15 on the door.

Age limit is 18+.
To book call the box office on 01582 602080.

THIS IS LUTON

St George's Square
Next Saturday, 11am-6pm

DID you know that more than 130 languages are spoken in Luton?

Do you want to know more about learning more about the different cultures in the town?

Then you will want to come to the 'This is Luton' festival, a free cultural awareness event being hosted by Luton in Harmony next Saturday.

It will feature music and dance, stalls highlighting the history and cultures of different communities, a fashion show with traditional dress and food samples.

There also will be competitions and prizes and children's activities including face painting, a bouncy castle, balloon modelling and games.

Lloyd Denny, chairman of Luton in Harmony, said: "Luton is a cosmopolitan town with communities originating from across the globe including Somalia, Russia, Zimbabwe, Philippines, Turkey and Brazil."

"This is a great opportunity to engage with people from different backgrounds and cultures who you wouldn't ordinarily meet and discover more about our differences and our similarities."

"It's going to be a great day out for all the family."

What Your Agent Has To Say

Top tips on how to sell a property in just six weeks

SO you are thinking of selling before Christmas but worried if you can make it happen.

As the Director of VA Property Consultants a buzzing vibrant estate agency in Luton Town Centre, I would like to help make this happen by giving you some top tips to selling your house in 6 weeks!

Tip No. 1 Make sure your property is priced correctly. The best way to do this is to do some online research on websites such as rightmove.co.uk as well as speaking to agents for our local knowledge and experience. Don't always be tempted to go with the highest valuation as this often can lead to your property being on the market for DOUBLE the time or not selling at all!

Tip No. 2 Present your property to sell. The first to prep is what I call 'kerb' appeal. Make sure your property looks good from the outside, including clean windows, nicely cut grass and maybe hang some pretty flowers in a basket. Once inside your property it should be clean, tidy and take down personal photos.

Tip No. 3 Always be available. The buying process is very emotional so it is key to have your property available when buyers are ready to view. A number of house sales are lost because we (the estate agent) can't secure access to your property for a viewing at the right time.

VA Property Consultants are ready at the end of the phone/email to give you lots of FREE advice and practical tips to help sell your property fast. Our company aim is sell your property at the best possible price in the shortest time with minimal stress to you so you can move on with your life and just be happy! We are so confident that we are publicly saying to all our clients if we don't sell your house in 6 weeks we will reduce our 1 per cent fee!

PRESS RELEASE SEPTEMBER 2015GET YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER, SAYS CONNELLS
NEW SMOKE ALARM LAWS
FOR LANDLORDS

Local lettings agent Connells in Luton is advising landlords to ensure all their properties are fitted with working smoke and carbon monoxide alarms due to a law change set for this autumn. The new law, which states that all landlords are responsible for the installation of working smoke and carbon monoxide alarms in their properties, is expected to take effect from 10th October 2015.

The new regulation, which is part of a government scheme to ensure the safety of tenants, requires landlords to install working alarms on every level of their properties, to test the alarms at the beginning of every tenancy, and to replace the alarms when they stop working. Tenants are therefore expected, once living in their rented property, to carry out regular tests and let their landlord know if their smoke alarms have stopped working.

"We recommend that all our landlords make sure their properties have working smoke and carbon monoxide alarms fitted before October this year, or they could face a penalty of up to £5,000," says Justin Walters, Lettings Manager at Connells Luton. "We pride ourselves on the good service that we offer to both landlords and tenants, so we feel it is within our duties to keep them informed of changes such as this."

Connells is a large and well-regulated, ARLA-qualified letting agent which conducts professional inventories, provides a tailor made approach and is a member of the Tenancy Deposit Scheme. The Luton branch offers a range of lettings services and advice, from matching tenants to their ideal properties to full property management, rent collection and insurance.

New Nissan Navara sets a benchmark for pick-ups

The all-new Nissan NP300 Navara sets a new benchmark in the one-tonne pick-up sector, combining the best of Nissan's Crossover leadership with over 80 years of experience in designing and manufacturing robust and cleverly engineered pick-ups. Improving comfort and refinement while maintaining the Navara's acclaimed off-road ability, durability and loading capacity, was a cornerstone of the new vehicle's development. The vehicle is all-new, with a robust and tough chassis that introduces a host of new engineering features designed to further improve drivability and practicality.

Thanks to its Crossover DNA the NP300 Navara brings a new level of refinement, style, comfort and quality, as well as first-in-class technologies to the pick-up market.

In-line with Nissan innovation, the new NP300 Navara introduces an array of new technology. In a sector that has traditionally been slow to adopt

NEW TECH: The Navara has an array of new technology for comfort and safety the very latest in comfort and safety features, it sets a new benchmark for affordable technology. Around View Monitor and Forward Emergency Braking (FEB) – both highly acclaimed Crossover safety features – are unique to the pick-up market and provide customers with more advanced levels of technology than ever before in a pick-up truck. Further safety and convenience features include Cruise Control, Hill Descent Control (HDC) and Hill Start Assist (HSA), all of which have been developed to meet the specific demands of NP300 Navara owners, as well as keyless entry, rear-view camera and parking sensors.

Every element of the cabin has been optimised to provide the best possible quality, comfort, space and practicality for drivers and passengers. The dashboard assembly has been redesigned from the ground up, with a sculpted appearance that creates increased cabin space and a more open feel. Spinal Support front seats offer improved ergonomics, and have been engineered using technology inspired by NASA.

Additional features the Nissan Navara boasts include the dual-zone digital climate control, as well as a new rear cab ventilation and seat design, to provide a more comfortable travelling environment for passengers.

COVERCAR

VW Touareg

Take a look inside...

Volkswagen's Touareg range is now powered exclusively by 3.0-litre diesel engines available in either 204 or 262PS outputs. The styling has been facelifted and you now get even more gear for your money. There's an off-road oriented Escape version on offer and prices are now on a par with the pricier compact SUVs.

The Touareg engine range has been rationalised and it's now far easier to understand. There are two engines to choose from and they're both economical 3.0-litre turbo diesels. One makes 204PS and the other a gutsier 262PS, both driving all four wheels via a brilliant eight-speed Aisin automatic gearbox. With this transmission top speed is reached in 6th gear, 7th and 8th essentially being used as overdrive gears to improve cruising economy.

That said, not all Touaregs are created equal, especially if you're planning to venture off road. For anything a bit Bear Grylls you might want to look to the Escape version which features the 4XMOTION off-road four-wheel drive system, with 50:50 torque split and centre and rear axle mechanical differential locks, higher off-road suspension, 18-inch 'Karakum' alloy wheels, 100-litre fuel tank (85 litres is standard on SE), and underbody protection.

The styling of the latest Touareg models definitely has some extra sparkle as a result of the most recent facelift. The styling hasn't been radically altered by the net effect is a sleeker, less macho look. The revised bumpers incorporate grilles with more slats than a Ferrari Testarossa and the revised alloy wheel designs are also a good deal showier than the utilitarian look of some of the older designs. The lack of a seven-seat option will continue to hinder the Touareg's appeal to family buyers but there's plenty of room for five adults to get comfortable and their luggage should fit in the extremely spacious boot.

The refresh to the Volkswagen Touareg is welcome but it doesn't disguise the fact that this model is getting a little long in the tooth. As long as you don't feel the need to have the newest and freshest thing on the market, the Touareg still has a lot to be said for it. It's tough, drives well and as long as you don't need seven seats, it's hard to pick holes in its practicality.

UK Ford Mustang Orders Accelerate Towards 2,000

Almost 2,000 Ford Mustang orders have been taken in the UK since January as the first right-hand drive cars begin to roll off the production line at Flatrock Assembly Plant in Michigan, North America. The Ford Mustang – introduced in the U.S. more than 50 years ago – has excited fans across the globe, but has never been available to order with right-hand drive, until now. The first UK customer deliveries are expected from November, with extra supply secured to meet the greater than expected demand. So far, 80 per cent of UK customers have opted for the fastback body style over the convertible and 70 per cent have specified the 416PS 5.0-litre V8 engine over the more fuel-efficient 317PS 2.3-litre EcoBoost engine. Mustang's six-speed manual transmission is the slightly more popular choice (55 per cent) over the six-speed automatic, which comes with sporty SelectShift paddle control. Over half of UK Mustangs have been specified with the Custom Pack which includes satellite navigation, a Shaker Pro 12-speaker audio system, heated and cooled front seats, a rear view camera, Luster Nickel silver alloy wheels and extra chrome detailing on fastback models.

Dacia Line-Up Even More Shockingly Affordable

The Dacia Duster is now even more 'shockingly affordable' to run with the introduction of a brand new EU6-compliant 1.6 16V 115 petrol engine which improves performance, reduces fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, significantly reduces running costs and improves the towing capacity of 4x2 models. It replaces the previous 1.6 16V 105 engine. With its arrival, Dacia now offers a greater number of petrol-engined models in the Duster line-up. Mid-range Ambiance 4x2 and 4x4 versions have been added, giving a more progressive and logical product line. Previously, only entry-level Access models were offered with a petrol engine. The new Ambiance versions are priced at £10,495 (4x2) and £12,495 (4x4). The new petrol engine is also fitted to Access versions, which are priced at £9,495 (4x2) and £11,495 (4x4). There are also reductions in fuel consumption and emissions for Duster models powered by the dCi 110 turbodiesel engine, which now meets EU6 emissions standards. As with the new petrol engine, this has the effect of lowering the VED band of every model. There are also improvements to the fuel economy and emissions of most models in the Sandero family and the Logan MCV with the adoption of EU6 engines.

Introducing The Stylish All-New Kia Optima

The all-new Kia Optima will be unveiled in European specification at the Frankfurt International Motor Show on 15 September 2015. The fourth-generation Optima, which will go on sale across Europe in Q4 2015, boasts a modern, new exterior, a bold interior design with more space for all occupants, an array of new technologies and a wide choice of efficient powertrains. The new model will offer greater refinement and improved ride and handling over the outgoing model, while retaining the sporty image that has helped Optima become one of Kia's best-selling models worldwide. The exterior styling of the all-new Kia Optima was a question of balance for Kia's global design teams. The all-new Optima maintains the athletic identity that made it so popular, while making a confident leap forward to attract car buyers looking for something different. Conceived under the watchful eye of Peter Schreyer, President and Chief Design Officer of Kia Motors, the all-new Optima offers more road presence than ever, with its contemporary surface detailing, sharp body lines and creases, and a more elongated sedan silhouette.

Green Turns To Gold

Volkswagen has added to its growing list of 2015 automotive industry accolades by winning the Green category in the annual BusinessCar Fleet Technology Awards - the Techies. The prestigious title was awarded to Volkswagen for the Golf GTE, an innovative plug-in hybrid that combines sporty dynamics with exceptional fuel economy and low CO2 emissions. Now in their seventh year, the Techies are judged by both BusinessCar's experienced editorial panel with help from TRL's technology expert. The industry's only technology-specific awards, the BusinessCar Techies reward the use of technology to make business car fleet operations easier, cheaper, cleaner, safer and more straightforward. The judging panel selected the Golf GTE ahead of strong and established rivals on the Green shortlist, citing its exceptional performance, value and ease of use.

New Micra n-tec Model

Nissan is expanding its value-packed Micra range with a new equipment-laden N-TEC model. Positioned between the existing Acenta and Tekna models, the new Micra N-TEC offers buyers the chance to experience some of Nissan's acclaimed technology features at an incredible price. Priced from £12,400 and available to order now, the new Micra N-TEC is available with the same advanced engine line-up as other models in the range. That means customers can choose between the entry-level 1.2-litre petrol engine that produces 80PS, or the supercharged 1.2-litre DIG-S unit that develops 98PS. The former is available with Nissan's smooth CVT automatic transmission as an option. The new Micra

N-TEC's generous equipment list includes the latest-generation NissanConnect system. Accessed via a 5.8-inch colour touchscreen display, the N-TEC's NissanConnect system includes satellite navigation and smartphone integration. It also comes with advanced features such as Google Send-To-Car technology, which allows an owner to plan a journey on their PC or tablet at home or in the office and then send the instructions to the car ahead of the journey.

Plug-In Car Grant Extended

The Government has announced that the current Plug-in Car Grant scheme would continue to offer motorists up to £5,000 off the price of an electric car until at least February 2016 for all categories of vehicle, boosting further the rapidly-growing plug-in car market. The Government's commitment to maintaining the established Plug-in Car Grant will see the contribution for ultra-low emission vehicles continue at current levels into 2016. Previously the Government had announced that grant levels would be reviewed once 50,000 vehicles had been sold, a milestone expected to be reached in November this year. As a result, all plug-in cars with CO2 emissions of 75g/km or less will remain eligible for a grant. Further details about how the plug-in car grant will be structured beyond February are expected following the Government Spending Review in November.

Blues handed third home loss of season

FOOTBALL

BY NICK SMITH
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABLE Town fell to a 2-0 home defeat against Leamington FC yesterday.

The hosts took the lead in the Evo Stik Southern Premier Division tie with just five minutes gone through Jack Edwards, in what was an even first period with both teams having spells of pressure and creating chances.

Dunstable improved after the restart but were unable to find a breakthrough.

They came closest when striker Ade Osubu was put clean through on goal.

However, the goalkeeper made himself big and the forward was unable to get the ball over the keeper.

Loanee Will Green made sure of the points for the visitors with a goal late in stoppage time, though Dunstable can take heart from their performance which was a big improvement from before the break.

Barton Rovers battled to a deserved point away at Northwood FC.

The hosts got off to a dream start, with an unstoppable strike from Max Holland beating Barton goalkeeper Kyle Forster, who had no chance.

Alex Condon scored for the visitors with 38 minutes gone to make it look like the two sides would go in level at the break, but Louis Stead scored for the hosts on the stroke of half time to give them the lead at the whistle.

Straight from the restart, Barton went for the equaliser and it came in the 48th minute.

Claudio Dias let fly to score from distance with a screamer.

Woods had many chances from then on to take all three points, but spurned them as Barton held on to take a share of the spoils.

In the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division, AFC Dunstable battled to a scoreless draw at London Colney in a top-of-the-table clash.

Leon Cashman almost opened the scoring for the visitors with just three minutes gone, but his fierce shot went just wide of the post.

The next best chance came in the 62nd minute, when BJ Christie's lob beat the goalkeeper but ended up just wide of the mark.

Canny carries on golden run

Teenager Kyron Canny of Luton Athletics Club sprinted to a gold medal in the U15 100 metres at the England Athletics National Age Group Championships at Bedford last weekend.

Canny has had a stunning year and he crossed the line first with a time of 11.2 seconds, just short of the personal best of 11.1 that he ran in winning the English Schools' Championships at Gateshead back in July.

The Barnfield West Academy pupil held off a strong challenge from William Hughes (11.4 seconds) to deny the Nene Valley runner a double at the championships as he later won in the 200 metres.

HATTERS

CAMBRIDGE UNITED	1
LUTON TOWN	3

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Three goals, three points and League Two victory at long, long last – this may have just been the Luton we were promised in pre-season.

The Hatters have been due some luck this term and a red card for Cambridge's Harrison Dunk turned the contest in Town's favour, not that John Still agreed. The manager called the dismissal "poor" and said: "I don't think it was game changer. We've played in a really strong atmosphere away from home and in my opinion I think we've controlled the game against a good side."

But immediately after the hosts were reduced to ten men Luke Wilkinson scored to make it 2-1 and Danny Green added his second in successive games to wrap up the points. It's a result and a performance that could change everything to Town this term.

"A small step on a long road" was how Still rightly described it but they broke the spell of those last-minute blunders and bar Leon Legge's equaliser they were immense at the back under the physical threat of Cambridge's aerial game plan – their only tactic.

Craig Mackail-Smith may not have scored but the striker really helped Town drive home their advantage while Luke Guttridge again raised questions about his omission from the first five league games.

The playmaker was the start turn in Tuesday's Johnstone's Paint Trophy victory over Leyton Orient and at the Abbey Stadium he followed that up with a goal of the season contender from 40-yards to opening the scoring.

The U's restored parity seven minutes later through Legge – a header, naturally – but that was Luton's only indiscretion.

By law of averages one of Cambridge's relentless crosses had to go in as they set their stall out early and almost opened the scoring in the fourth minute but Wilkinson did enough to put off Barry Corr at the back post and the striker headed Dunk's cross wide of the back post.

Moments after Cambridge squandered a gilt-edged chance, when an unmarked Robbie Simpson sent a flying header wide, Town punished them in the most spectacular of fashions.

Former U's man Guttridge saw Chris Dunn off his line and from lobbed the keeper from the neighbouring postcode. His nonchalance in doing so making it even more mystifying that this was his first Football League appearance of the campaign. He must keep his shirt.

That moment of magic aside, the Hatters had maintained much possession with no penetration and then had to battle with the hosts' direct, aerial bombardments, which was the source of frequent panic in Luton's penalty box. Though the ever dangerous Corr saw Mark Tyler instinctively stoop low to keep out his header, the goalie had no chance seconds later when Legge nodded a bullet past him to equalise. Luton's lead had lasted just seven minutes.

Town survived until the break but there was a multi-player scuffle by the dugouts as they left the pitch, with Scott Cuthbert and Corr the main protagonists and at each other's throats all the way from the halfway line to the tunnel despite a talking to by referee Graham Salisbury.

There was less of the heated stuff immediately after the restart but a niggly first half had virtually ensured this game had a red card in it.

Hatters fans will be more than happy to see referee Graham Salisbury take charge of their contests again after he dismissed Cambridge's Tom Naylor in the same fixture last term. When it came in the 64th minute of this match it was rather innocuous with Dunk dismissed for a hand ball and second yellow card.

But it proved a crucial as from the resulting free-kick Green – who had earlier struck the side netting – found Wilkinson and the centre back powered home a header, delivering a dose of Cambridge's own medicine for his second of the season.

Spearheaded by the ever-ready running of Mackail-Smith, Luton turned on the style and wrapped up their first three points seven minutes from time as they played passes tauntingly around the Cambridge players in the penalty box before Green was able to pick his spot and slide in from 10 yards.

Tring prove to be too strong for Luton RFC

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

Luton RFC got their 2015 London 1 North league campaign going this weekend, losing 42-7 on the road to Tring yesterday afternoon. "We came up against a very strong side, they came down from National 3 last season and they've managed to retain their players", said Luton manager Dicky Jones. "We lost two of our front row early in the second half, and as per the rules we went down to fourteen men, and for a while we held our own".

Michael Weston scored Luton's try, converted by Rik Hobbs, "to be fair, the scoreline didn't reflect this afternoon's game", said Jones. Luton will be hosting another side new to London 1 North next weekend, as they open their home account against newly promoted Chelmsford, "they're a good side, so the result is far from a given, but we'll be competitive".

Dunstablians and Stockwood Park completed their preparation for life together in Midlands 3 (East) South this weekend, the Dees enjoyed a home friendly against Bedford Swifts, while Stockwood hosted another Bedford side - the Queens.

The Dees had a slightly better afternoon, winning 50-14 against a Swifts side preparing for a season in the league below their hosts. It was honours even at Stockwood Park, as they played a Queens side suffered relegation last term - albeit to the league above the one Stockwood Park are in now. Both sides crossed the whitewash four times in a game of two 30 minute halves.

"It was all about getting the young lads playing", said Stockwood Park's injured Number 8 Ben Griffin, forced to watch the game from the sidelines. "There was a great turnout, which is excellent for the season ahead, we had over thirty lads ready to play - and we're still waiting for another ten first-team regulars to return from injury."

"And I think it's fair to say that scoreline flattered them somewhat, but it's all about next week, and our season opener against Stewarts & Lloyds"

Quince rides to double gold

LUTON's cycling golden girl Otilie Quince has successfully defended her titles at the World Transplant Games in Argentina.

Quince, 33, won again in the 5km cycling time trial and 20km road race to add to her collection of gold medals from the same events in the 2011 and 2013 championships.

The sports therapist and freelance commentator received a life-saving kidney transplant from her mum in 2007 and this year she was chosen to captain the GB transplant cycling team.

Her first victory came last Tuesday (August 25) in the 5km time trial and she followed that up the next day with more success in the 20km road race

Still has right kind of dilemma after away win

KICKSTART: Luton are hoping the victory at Cambridge will see them push on

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lntmedia.co.uk

Luke Guttridge admitted it has been a frustrating start to the season but believes he has now given manager John Still a dilemma after he helped Luton to their first League Two win of the season.

The playmaker had not featured at all before this week but he returned in midweek to guide the Hatters to victory in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy and then scored a stunning 40-yard lob as they beat Cambridge United 3-1.

"From a personal point of view it's just nice to get out and play some games," Guttridge said. "It has been frustrating. I've been 100 per cent fit, training really well and I'm disappointed I've had to wait as long as I have."

The 33-year-old was virtually guaranteed a start against his old club United after he was the star turn against Leyton Orient on Tuesday, but his chances of a first league appearance were greatly improved due to the international week.

Paddy McCourt joined the Northern Ireland squad while Cameron McGeehan turned down the chance to play for their under-21s - as he wants to play for England - and was suspended from action under FIFA rules. Guttridge said: "An opportunity has arisen. Cam has been suspended, Paddy is on international duty and I've gone from being in the stands and nowhere near the team to being given a chance and hopefully it give the manager a bit of food for thought."

The midfielder opened the scoring but Cambridge levelled seven minutes later in a tetchy first half. The game hinged on the sending off of United's Harrison Dunk and Luke Wilkinson headed the Hatters in front from the resulting free-kick.

Danny Green then added a third after a well-worked passing move and Guttridge said: "It's been what we've needed this season. Something to kick-start us. Performances have been better than where the league position puts us but it's a first league win and now we've done that hopefully we can kick on."

On his strike, which will be a goal of the season contender, Guttridge said: "Luckily, it has dropped kindly and I've seen the keeper backtracking. Sometimes you hit them and they go in and other times they don't. Today it has gone in."

"Instinct took over and I knew the goalkeeper was off his line so I addressed it and tried to get as solid a connection as I could. Thankfully I've caught it sweet as a nut and it's gone over [the goalkeeper's head]. I don't know why the keeper bothered diving."
